

Minority Burials in Brookwood Cemetery

A Specialist Walk in Two Parts

Part One: From far away: Exploring minority burial grounds in Brookwood Cemetery

Brookwood Cemetery is home to the largest concentration of minority burial grounds in the UK. This walk will introduce the history of many of these burial grounds, including the Swedish, Latvian, Italian and Zoroastrian.

Part Two: Muslim burial grounds in Brookwood Cemetery

Starting with the establishment of the first Muslim burial ground in the UK in 1884, Brookwood Cemetery hosts a wide range of Muslim burial grounds. This walk will introduce the history of these burial grounds, and also trace some of the journeys travelled by some of those buried here.

Dates, Time, Duration

part 1 ~ Sunday 13th March 2022 starting at 1pm, tour will be 2 hours duration.

Part 2 ~ Sunday 24th April 2022 starting at 1pm, tour will be 2 hours duration.

These walks will be repeated on subsequent dates part 1 ~ Sunday 22nd May 2022

part 2 ~ Sunday 12th June 2022

How to participate

Your guide is Ole Jensen

The walks start from the Society Lodge

Booking is essential as numbers are limited

Booking can be made through the Society email ~

walks@tbcs.org.uk

The walk is free of charge

Refreshments will be available after for a charge of £1 per person ~ these monies go to the Brookwood Cemetery Society Restoration Fund